as he seems to think. I accept, unhesitatingly, "The Old Man's" assurance that he has not been years, and I regret to learn that he has not been able to sleep for so long a time. Insomnia, or the inability to the delivery of the diplomas ended the sleep, is a comparatively new disease. Cases of it are more frequently found in cities where nervous systems are subjected to great and continual strains. The College for the scholastic year I am surprised to hear of a case in this For the information, many thanks. The case is a remarkable one. If it is a continuation, but an increase of the possible to show the logical connection patronage it has in the past and will of the premises and the conclusion of the above proposition I am ready to admit that I have been "dead, drunk and asleep for the last twenty years.' He supposes that I have "yet to learn that there is a Classin University, that negroes sit upon juries, and that one of the best teachers in the county is superintendent of negro schools in Winnsboro." I do not know on what grounds he bases these hypothises of my ignorance. I only know that they are erroneous, for I have had of Fairfield that the Chester County the pleasure of visiting Claffin University, and thanks to the courtesy of two of the professors, I was enabled during a visit to Orangeburg last year to be come tolerably well acquainted with the method of instruction pursued in that college.
